

SOUL

As usual its a beautiful day in heaven with all The Archangels standing around discussing the recent war in heaven when Lucifer and his dark legions attempted to drive GOD from heaven. GODS forces prevailed led by Michael the beloved Archangel. GOD was discussing future strategy to defend Heaven against Lucifer. Michael wants to know why they were not allowed to annihilate the dark forces. GOD tells them that violence is always the last resort of defense. It must be done this way because Lucifer was one of my beloved Archangels and some day I may have to restrain him. But now is not the time!

My lord, my lord, yes Gabriel what is so urgent! I was passing the hall of souls and one of the souls wanted an audience with you. By all means says the Lord. A few minutes goes by and coming across the floor is a glowing spirit of gold, silver and multi-colors. It was so brilliant it flooded the room. A dazzling display that filled the room with love and the smell of flowers that is so common in heaven.

Welcome soul what is it you want, are you unhappy, is there something you need. Tell me my precious little one because if your unhappy then we will all be unhappy. Here in Heaven happiness is the most important act of peace we do. So tell me soul what can I do for you. Well LORD its not so much about being unhappy but why are we souls so different from all the Angels in Heaven. Why do we spend our time in the hall of souls and the angels and the rest of the spirits roam freely in heaven going everywhere and doing things but we hang around all day. Why! You will not be angry at me for saying this, will you. No soul, you are too precious and loved always!

GOD said very shortly your going to be favored with life. What is a life says soul. Well I am in the process of creating a universe. What is a universe says soul. Its a fertile land and a new Heaven. On that fertile land I will create Humankind in my image and you will be inserted into that Humankind. You will be able to see and feel all the wonders I have created. I am so excited! When will this happen says soul. This will happen on day six of my creative work and that is tomorrow. When is tomorrow says soul.

Very

Shortly and you will have a name. What is a name, says soul? Well what am I called. You are called GOD or LORD. Correct says the LORD. You will be named ADAM after the earth I created and you will live in a place that I am going to call the Garden of Eden. It is a beautiful place and you will be amazed at the wonder of it all. There will be living and breathing things that will keep you company. Will all the souls go there, ah,ah,um um well I think so soul but I have not figured that out yet.

It is the sixth day and everyone in Heaven is excited as he performs his wonderful creation. As all watch the ground trembles as a the clay comes together and slowly it takes shape, A great light stops over the mound and the shape has features as the sculptor is completed and a great whoosh sound is heard and soul is inserted into ADAMS new body. Soul is so happy, he stands and looks around He cannot believe the amazing sight before him. The beauty is overwhelming as he walks to the rivers edge and touches the water {the Euphrates}. What is this LORD. It is called water and you drink it. Thank you LORD and now may I see the rest of this place called Eden. Yes my SON and are you happy soul. Yes LORD, very happy. Soul takes himself on a tour of Eden.

REMEMBER NO MATTER WHERE YOU GO OR WHAT YOU DO THE HAND OF GOD ALWAYS TOUCHES YOU. WHERE YOU ARE I AM!
