

Reported to have been said at the signing of the U.S. Constitution in 1789:

“We are here signing into law a most imperfect document with the ability to amend it and make it perfect”.

Supreme Court take notice-----Stop making up your own laws by interpreting and translating laws as you see fit. The constitution is a fixed document and requires an amendment to define the content or order the Congress to send it to the states for disposition under Article IX of the constitution.

At this point in our lives we wonder who we can trust and the following article is about trust. In today's world trust is a life and death situation. Death is the alternative to stupidity! Even as this article is written the democrats have submitted a resolution to throw yet another monkey wrench in the military's attempt to stop the nut cases in the middle east. If the democrats were sincere they would have cut off the funds for the war. Read what Madame Mao Clinton said recently. “If I HRC is elected President in 2008 I will end the war in 2009. This is exactly what “W” said he was going to do by having the Iraqi forces ready by 2009. What a sham this is! The democrats never intended to get out right away. All those attacks against “W” was phony and we ate it up. The democrats never intended to get out of Iraq right away. Even the dumbest democrat {They go to a special school for dumb or there not as bright as a ¼ watt bulb} knows we would be asking for it and the consequences would be terrifying at the least. Many dead Americans if we are defeated. The democrats are weak on defending us with their turn tail and run philosophy. You can bet the sub-human terrorist have already made plans to move on to Afghanistan {some may already be there} to defeat our forces.

So starting with Woodrow Wilson to the present day Junta in charge of the Congress which will include Coat tail Clinton and the other Clinton that had his own Humonicador with magic cigars. You know the guy with two kinds of honor, 1. Get Honor 2. Stay Honor. I would like to show the kind of deceit and lies we had to endure with no consequences for the perpetrators because there democrats and the double standard is always working for them. Whenever a democrat does something wrong it's ok by the people because their so compassionate. Methinks it's just that we non leftist are to silent and allow them to get away with it. If we continue to be silent the march to Marxist/Socialism is just a revolt away. This past week the weasel democrats are attempting to limit the scope of the mission in Iraq by ordering our troops to stop attacking the terrorist. After all if we attack them we might win and the democrats can't have this kind of situation. Winning is bad for democrats and dead Americans is good for democrats and 2008.

So here we go, read and weep for our country as the democrats set the stage for more of us to die {See article Democrats and Intelligence} because of politics and their lust for power. White surrender flags are being distributed by the DNC headquarters so I'm told. Get in touch with them and see if its true and let me know.

TRUST ME SAY THE DEMOCRATS AND WITH THAT I SUGGEST YOU BEND OVER AND KISS YOUR ASS GOODBYE!

Today is not like all days. The fox is guarding the henhouse. That's how we see the new Democratic Junta in Washington. We now have a new affirmative action Speaker of the House of Representative, Eva Peron Pelosi. We know now that she doesn't believe in free will since her interview before the 2006 election when she said democrats will not be allowed to vote their conscience. They vote for anything that helps the Republicans and there in trouble. Eva Pelosi would make a great Vice President to Stalin Putin. What a great combination, the lady in red [she wooks wike widdle wed widing wood] and the KGB muscle man.

By themselves, individual incidents are not as noticeable but together they tell a story!

DEMOCRATS AND WAR;

The democrats dismal record since Woodrow Wilson is not the best even with Roosevelt at the helm during WWII and us winning that war. Woodrow Wilson [Democrat] said he would keep us out of WWI. Do you think he lied? This from a man that gave us the graduated income tax. This is for the conspiracy nuts who claim President George Bush was responsible for 9/11. Well now its time to blacken the name of Woodrow with my conspiracy theory that is, Woodrow Wilson ordered the sinking of the Lusitanian in order to get us involved in the war. They passed the Sedition Act of 1917/18 to silence the people undermining the war effort. We needed that law again when the Vietnam War was on and just think we would have been able to arrest all those politicians and leftist that has since turned our country away from everything good. This country wouldn't be in the shape it's in now.

President Roosevelt said he would keep us out of the war. Do you think he lied? Before the war he started the Lend Lease program {without congressional approval} and helped England [the right thing to do] but don't you think this pissed the Fuhrer off. Then he cuts off supplies, including oil to the Japanese [the right thing to do] but don't you think he pissed the Empire off. Even today people believe that Roosevelt provoked the Japanese Empire into attacking the United States. There is suspicion that he held back notifying Pearl Harbor of the threat of an attack. Roosevelt was warned on numerous occasions that he had fellow travelers in his administration {including his wife} but did nothing about it. By 1949 the Chinese Communist took over China and the defeated forces ended up in Formosa and along with these forces was my late wife's Aunt {A Nun} who escaped riding in a box car with lice under her skin. If you watch the democrats in action today, they consistently deceive us and the Republicans are silent.

Then came the Korean conflict [The Police Action], a half million men in combat, over 40,000 men dead and approximately 8000 missing and they call it a police action. From June 25, 1950 until the middle of September the North Korean wolves were held at bay. The breakout and the invasion at Inchon by the Marines in September ended the presence of North Korea in South Korea. Now comes the beginning of politically correct wars because President Truman allowed General MacArthur to invade North Korea [the right thing to do]. After the North Korea army was annihilated the allies should have returned back to the 38th parallel, set up defenses and then notify the Communist Dictators that if they crossed the 38th parallel we would use tactical nuclear weapons. The see/saw war that Truman allowed was wrong and good men died because of the lack of political resolve. Then President Eisenhower is elected and they know as a military man he would use nuclear weapons if he had to. Remember it was Eisenhower that said don't get involved in a land war in Asia. The guns went silent! No thanks to the democrats! I still say prayers for the 11 American men that had their hands tied behind their backs with wire and shot in the back of their heads. If you were in the airborne at that time in Korea you can never forget the hundreds of people including American soldiers that were murdered by the retreating North Korean Army in the Suchon Tunnel. You know what was disgusting about this war, it was the American people. They hardly knew the war was going on and where. This was confirmed by" General Haig" and he said pretty much the same thing. Even more disgusting was the panty raids by the draft dogging schmucks.

Now its 1961 and President Kennedy is backing a Cuban invasion force to try to liberate Cuba from the benevolent dictator and the most corrupt ism in the world and that's Communism. Kennedy showed great courage backing the invasion but then as the Cuban Patriots are landing he pulls the air cover. It's been reported that it was Bobby Kennedy who was behind pulling the air cover. Just think he could have been president! The invading Cuban Patriots were all captured. Shame on you democrats! We should have invaded Cuba during the Cuban Missile Crisis but the democrats wouldn't do it. JFK another horny democrat and Bobby K was no prize package. Why does Marilyn Monroe come to mind.

What can we say about Vietnam! This is the crowning glory of democratic foreign policy. From beginning to end it was a democrat screw up. Kennedy started it all, Johnson screwed it up and Nixon tried to clean it up. Johnson lies to us before the election of 1964 when he tells us he will not increase troop levels. He gets elected [I voted for him] and troop levels go up. President Johnson and Defense Secretary Robert McNamara should have been considered war criminals because they sent men and women to die when they were not trying to win. Johnson fabricated the Gulf of Tonkin incident and he got away with it. Notice all these lies and just think of it, Nixon got fired for just one lie.

A breather, did you know that most democrats voted against almost every major weapons system that is protecting us today. John Kerry one of the biggest offenders.

It's the 1970's and OPEC gives us a suppository and who can forget running all over the city to get a cup full of gas and what is Sir Jimmy [the vicious] Carter doing about it---- nothing. Then our Embassy is invaded and our people taken hostage and Carter didn't know what to do. He should have asked Amy! Maybe Amy did give him the advice to try the rescue attempt with faulty aircraft with too few men and miles from the target. Jimmy [I got nuts] cut our two Ocean Navy in half and we trusted this man with our lives. You know I've come to the conclusion that President Carter couldn't run in circles and get it straight! President Reagan gets elected and the Iranians panic because they were not so sure President Reagan would just sit around for the mutton heads to release our hostages. Recap of what Sir Jimmy [the vicious] Carter did for us:

1. Cut the Navy to a scary low.
2. Helpless during Iran hostage imprisonment
3. Iran rescue mission fails because helicopters broke down. Democratic budget cuts caused this.
4. Military could not train our troops properly because of budget cuts. Example: Field Artillery was only able to bring the troops out to the range twice a year because of lack of ammunition. Nice going nut man!
5. Helpless during Oil Crisis.
6. Helpless as interest rates soared.
7. Gave away the Panama Canal. When the war comes one of the first targets will be the Canal and watch the American people scream {I'd say yell but were too feminized for that} when prices of everything soars can you hear the American people saying I dunno, wha hoppen!
8. Responsible for driving the Shah of Iran out of the country and replaced him with Ayatollah Khomeini. The Shah tried to bring Iran up to the 20th century and the mutton head brought it back to the 13th century. Carter and his handmaidens in the press started it with their propaganda machine screaming that the Secret Police (Saavark) had thousands of political prisoners and torturing them. In fact they had a little over 200 in the prisons. Remember the left always ignores what their comrade is doing in the way of benevolent torture.

9. Asked his daughter Amy for advice on Nuclear Weapons and she wasn't even a teenager then. Does this make you feel secure about the democrats?
10. He seems to love dictators especially communist ones.
11. Carter and Clinton (Baron Von Horney) break Presidential precedent and criticize subsequent Presidents. Remember the left completely ignored the communist torture machines at work.
12. Almost forgot another democratic star in the heavens. The Mariel boat lift Castro opened up his Physco wards and his prisons and sent them all here to the United States, Carter let them all in. Is there a parallel to the democrats wanting to let millions of illegal's stay here and open the doors for another 25-30 million illegal's for their vote. Here cometh the new Banana Republic of New New Mexico. Bye Bye U.S!

When a democrat says 10 you can be sure there full of you know what! It's usually double or triple what they say.

Now there is a new problem on the horizon and it's gay people {is it ok to say gay-can't say articulate} A judge has ruled that a foreign homosexual who want's asylum does not have to give a reason to come to the U.S. Now think of it, If there are 6 Billion people on earth that means there are almost 600 million homosexuals and most of them will want to come here. I'm joining Nambla for protection. Add to that the estimated 25 million illegals {not the 12-14 million reported} and another 50 million over the next 10-20 years. They might as well open the borders and let everyone in. Were going to need the money that's used for border protection for welfare, education and health benefits. Hell the American people don't see a threat so we might as well cut the military down to a police force, were going to need the money. You can be sure the rich will be back up to paying 75% on anything over 200K.

President Reagan is elected and things change. He gets the democrats to agree that taxes need to be cut and the rest is history. Now Reagan sets out to give America its pride back and grow our economy. Succeeds in both areas and then sets out to give the Soviets a taste of there own medicine. Starts supplying support, including arms to the anti - communist forces. Like Angola where the Cubans were doing their usual shtick, causing as much trouble as they can so we eventually can all live in a workers paradise, ala Cuba. But guess who is trying like hell to throw a monkey wrench into the works. If you said the democrats----You're right. The democrats loved Danny Ortega the now President of Nicaragua who was the banana republic Dicktater. Jim Wright the House Speaker at the time even sent Danny O a letter of support. But even with the democrats frustrating the Republicans the Contra's defeated the Sandinistas and Violetta Barrio's de Chamorro was elected as the President of Nicaragua. The good guys won one and no thanks to the democrats.

The Cuban's were building a 10,000 ft runway on Grenada and it doesn't take a PHD to figure out they were up to no good considering the politics of the island had moved radically to the left. The democrats went bezerk and Reagan still sent an invasion force to rid the Island of those patriots of free speech. I wish Reagan had released all the documentation they captured so the public could see and feel the threat.

Then Major Oliver North screws the Iranians and the democrats tried to jail him and lost. Thank you Lord! Sometimes you can really be good to us. To every democrat I have ever known, everybody lies but them and they believe it to their core. The democrats are always trying to jail even the good guys because it's all about political posturing. There always about the constitution except when there on the attack against Republicans. Then they always get their pals in the judiciary to get them what they can't get through the legislative process.

To President Reagan's credit he supported my hero Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher when she sent her forces to liberate the Falkland Islands from the Argentines. The Argentines didn't believe in negotiating with the Brits. When the Brits get that ramrod up their backs, you are in for the fight of your life. You can be guaranteed that if the mutton heads keep attacking England, and unlike the United States they won't be so timid. There will be a lot of dead Arabs and terrorist around and they will be sent on there way to meet the 72 virgins without vagina's. Add this to your "Vagina Chronicles" you fouled mouth #^&*+?:';#$.

Well George Bush is now President and its 1989 and he orders the invasion of Panama. Guess who tried to stop it and who complained and complained about the legality of the invasion the democrats of course. But did you hear any noise from the surrender party when Billy Boy killed all those poor Serbs that did nothing to us. You know that war we fought so high in the sky that the pilots were afraid they would get nose bleeds. As usual they did a great job because I remember MIG ALLEY. Remember how the democrats badgered the republicans into getting permission from everybody including Simon says. Of course the republicans back down and they better get over this gentlemanly BS. The Marquis of Queensbury rules are out when dealing with the democrats. Billy boy did not get permission from anybody when he attacked Serbia. Then he ignores the 60 day rule of the War Powers Act and goes past it. It's OK because he is a democrat and the republicans did the usual, rolled over and played dead, but I'm not sure if there playing dead.

Well here we are it's the first Gulf war and President George {Dad} Bush pulls together a bunch of countries to liberate Kuwait which was conquered by the butcher of Bagdad. Do you recall how the democrats and their handmaidens in the press were screaming about the terrible losses we were going to have with body bags by the thousands? Nothing good is ever said or written by these losers. We can see how brilliant Dad is until he comes up against George Mitchell the democratic leader in the senate. He gives President Bush a sucker punch called raising taxes. Goodbye President Bush, Here again the same old double standard comes into play. Billy Boy tells the middle class before the election he is going to lower our taxes, then after the election he hits us with over 300 billion in new taxes. He got away with it as usual. We also had a couple of lying democratic senators from the Midwest who told their constituents they were going to vote for the balance budget amendment. Yes they were elected and voted against it. Well whata know there democrats and its ok. Well war is raging in Kuwait and our guys still show us that they are the greatest fighting machine in the world when their not fighting in a politically correct war. It's a short time before the end and the republican guard is trapped in Basra. It has been reported that Colin Powell talked President Bush into stopping the war instead of annihilating the guard. Is it possible he didn't want to kill his brown bro's. I always considered Colin Powell a closet democrat and he confirmed it when he retired. He turned on his former boss W! Unethical at the very least. You see there are ethical men like Cyrus Vance, a cabinet member for Sir Jimmy {the viscous} Carter. He didn't agree with Carter on a policy he felt strongly about. They couldn't agree and he resigned. Then there was one of the Kalb brothers that worked for President Nixon and he disapproved of something Nixon was doing and he resigned. These are ethical men! You don't like what your boss is doing then get the hell out and leave the bunglers to do there job. My personal opinion is that if President George Bush had not gone back to his liberal to moderate self he would have been President for 8 years. At least he didn't go the extreme liberal route his son took and spent money like a drunken sailor at the Hotel Imperial in Scolly Square { was the sex aplenty area } in Boston. I tried to buy some S-E-X but the ladies of the evening, morning and afternoon told me "get lost kid". Whata disappointment since I had just come out of the Old Howard burlesque theatre. They could have at least had pity on me even if I did only have a half a buck. I was on a long lunch break from my job as a copy boy {after school} for a local newspaper,. I was a working guy and the ladies could have been more considerate!

Then along came a spider Hillary the president for 8 years and her horny Vice President two step Willy and they made history. Its been said she was behind a lot of the cabinet appointments like Donna Shalala, Doris Meisner, JanetWeeneReno, Jocelyn Elders and Hazel O'Leary and not a good banana in the bunch, there were more. Just think if -W- had any backbone he should have turned the FBI on to investigate the excesses during the Clinton years. Imagine having taken 900 plus personnel FBI files and who knows what they did with all that information maybe that's why the republicans are so timid and the democrats keep winning. What happened at Waco still lingers on. Who knows who was right but there is one wrong and it's the children that died because Janet Reno was incompetent and a democrat, she got away with it. God Bless the little souls and the peace and love God has given them. If that had been a republican he would have been drawn and quartered and his remains dropped into an active volcano. Some liberal democrat is reading this about the brutalizing of a republican and he's probably having an orgasm. There is too much to say about these dynamic dumbo's so we'll pick up on another day.

Question before I go-----What if there is a stalemate at the democratic convention {or is it an ogre} like Bart Osama and Madame Mao can't agree on who's going to be at the top of the ticket. Two Step Willy to the rescue and we get the new dance duo Clinton and Clinton and their new hit song "I lied for you. It could happen! I wonder how Chelsea will look behind the desk at the state department!_

I don't care what anyone says I'm voting for Condi or Tancredo. The two honest ones in the Presidential Battle---
Let the Games begin!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!????????????????
