

Why the Republicans Lost:

The Republicans like all politicians can't read or hear you unless there is a check in the mail.

If they read their mail over these years they would have been better prepared to take on the democrats. From the moment the democrats started yelling about no WMD's the republicans should have countered with, YOUR RIGHT, and said Bill Clinton lied and keep harping on that until they were drowned out. That would have given the republicans a chance. You couldn't rely on "W" for any help because he doesn't have the stomach for a battle with the Angels of death. He likes to be above the fray, doesn't like to dirty his hands.

He is a gopher president, he sticks his head out every two years and makes a few speeches and if you have noticed he's very guarded when he speaks against the democrats. The worst thing "W" does is silence the party. If he's afraid, fine, leave the party alone so they can defend themselves. You did wrong "W" and I hope for the next two years the republicans come out swinging and back these democrats to wall and make them squeal.

We have a great economy and the republicans sat on there hands and let the press lie and lie and lie by omission, saying almost nothing about the economy. Remember Clinton inherited a good economy that had slowed. Remember their slogan "it's the economy stupid" and the republican brainiacs couldn't cope with it. The press praised Clinton for the improving economy at every turn. They could have have gone after the democrats declaring they have the Robin Hood syndrome, steal from the rich and give to the poor._

The democrats screamed get out of Iraq its George Bush's war. They had no plan and the repubs let them get away with it. They said the economy was bad but they had no plan. They said we have a fuel crisis but had no plan. They said were losing jobs but they had no plan. The republicans better get their act together and press the democrats at every turn. Because we have lost trust in your ability. When your in charge your not in charge. I can't believe all those bosses I had over the years would take the guff the repubs did. My bosses would have made Eunichs out of their enemies and politics be dammed. Industry solves the most difficult problems and creates state of the art equipment. Government is the only place you can't solve problems. Who suffers, we do. If the republicans had the same kind of love that President George Washington had for our people with his great courage, character and moral conviction the 666 party would be buried by now, and forgotten. Get fired on principal not on silence.

Republicans have lost their way and need to stand up for us overtaxed citizens.

On the lighter side, have you noticed that the females who have had boob augmentation look funny. When they lay on their backs and you kneel down a few feet away and look up between their feet and bore sight up to the new boobs, they look like a two hump camel. As a not so young lady told me "when I was a young girl my 36B & C's stood up when I laid down but now that I'm old and when I go to sleep they lay down beside me". Well what can you do when there now 38 longs.

HAVE A GOOD DAY !!!!!
